

I can see the potential benefit to the local community in opening the airwaves to the LPFM broadcasters. I strongly feel that the LPFM's should not be allowed to bump existing Translators from thier existing frequencies. These translators, in many instances, provide programing that would otherwise not be available to the local commuinty.